

Prelude to Christmas at the Amana Colonies

Nov. 30 – Dec.1, 2018

The Amana Colonies have been a treasure on the Iowa prairie for over 150 years. The seven villages of the Amana Colonies offers you the chance to step back from today's busy pace, to relish the comfort of locally crafted foods, furniture, art and more. Prelude to Christmas is a special time in the Amana Colonies with the main village of Amana is decorated for the Christmas Holiday. Here you'll enjoy candlelit streets, the handcrafted gifts, delicious food all in a place like no other.

Day 1 – Amana Colonies (D)

Upon arrival in Amana, we'll have a welcome reception and meet our step-on guide. You will visit several of the seven Amana villages during the guided tour with stops at a variety of historically interesting attractions. Following dinner at Ox Yoke Inn, you'll enjoy a live theatre performance of Church Basement Ladies in Away in the Basement, at Old Creamery Theatre. Your home for the night is Die Heimat Country Inn, the original bed and breakfast of the Amana Colonies.

Day 2 - Amana Colonies (B)

After breakfast, enjoy the twinkling lights of over 40 decorated real Christmas Trees and see their 17 foot German style Christmas pyramid in the Tannenbaum Forest. You will have time for shopping in Amana, where you'll find Christmas crafts, holiday items, gifts, needlework, wood crafts and home baked goods, jams, and jellies.

Tour Prices:

Double:	$275
Triple:	$245
Quad:	$225
Single:	$325

Deposits:

Initial deposit of $50 due with reservation.
Final payment due November 16

Activity Level:

Tour Includes:

One Night's Lodging
One Breakfast
One Dinner
Guided tour of the Amana Colonies
Old Creamery Theatre Performance
Deluxe Motorcoach Transportation
Driver and Tour Guide Tips

For questions or information call:
Mary Ann Gelven, Advantage Club Director
573-417-0276